ATTACHMENT

On Tuesday, November 22, 2014, at approximately 7:15 PM, United States Border Patrol (USBP) Agents Bruce Garza and Bladimir Puente were conducting assigned duties in the area of Rio Grande City, Texas along the Rio Grande. The agents were alerted to an area where several subjects were coming in carrying large bundles. As the agents approached the group, the subjects released the bundles they were carrying and ran back towards the Rio Grande River. Agents were able to apprehend one subject who was later identified as Adrian HERNANDEZ-Paredes. A total of five bundles were located and collected by assisting agents. The bundles were later tested and identified as marijuana. The five bundles (total weight 103 kgs) and HERNANDEZ-Paredes were transported to the Rio Grande City Border Patrol Station for further processing and safekeeping. Once at the station, HERNANDEZ-Paredes was advised of his Miranda Warnings. HERNANDEZ-Paredes asked for an attorney and no questioning was conducted.

S/A Anthony Dominguez contacted McAllen United States Attorney's Office was federal prosecution was accepted.
